I work as the maintenance man for PMI, A property management company. I had a work order + several items to repair at 2313 Henesta. This is a two floor duplex, with a common door entry. I had knocked on the apt. door at 2315 Henesta to ask them to move one of the vehicles that was blocking the driveway at 2313. I knocked quite hard + waited a couple minutes + no one responded. I then went downstairs, + she then came to the door, I asked her to move her car + she responded + told me that I needed to mow 1/2 the lawn. She then slammed the door. After about 5 minutes I again knocked on the door at 2315, she yelled you're not the fucking police, + if you keep pounding on my door, I will shoot you. She then opened the door + she had a black semi-auto pistol. I then turned + started to leave + told her again to move her car. She slammed the door + a couple minutes later came out + moved her car. I called my supervisor + he told me to call the police. I felt threatened when she had the gun.

I HAVE READ THE ABOVE STATEMENT AND IT IS TRUE AS WRITTEN.
